WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BE A MEMBER OF THE CALIFORNIA CHAMBER SYMPHONY SOCIETY?

- It means supporting the cause of great music.
- It means helping thousands of young people to enrich their lives.
- It means meeting many stimulating people and making new friends.
- It means going to some of the most exciting parties in Los Angeles.
- It means having priority seating at all the concerts of the California Chamber Symphony at Royce Hall and the Music Center.

Your support is meaningful to us in any category of support you choose.

| CATEGORY | BENEFITS: |
|---------------------------|---|
| $35 Supporter | Annual membership party (see above); Priority seating at all concerts; All mailings, including newsletter. |
| $50 Contributor | All the above plus invitations to parties after each concert to meet soloists, orchestra and fellow members in the elegant reception room at Royce Hall. |
| $100 Sponsor | All the above plus the thrill of spending four evenings with celebrated artists discussing and illustrating the music of the masters, with instruments in hand, in the privacy of a beautiful home, a privilege most music lovers can only dream of. As an example, Tchaikovsky laureate Daniel Heifetz and conductor Henri Temianka will explore Mozart and Schubert several days before the Royce Hall concert. |
| $250 Donor | |
| $500 Founder | |
| $1,000 Benefactor | All the above plus a special evening of string quartets in a beautiful, intimate setting honoring the Donors, Founders and Benefactors. |
